Pumas to Host Valpo on Homecoming Oct. 24; Iofredo Appointed St. Joseph Football Coach

Joe Iofredo, head basketball coach at St. Joseph's College, has been named head football coach, succeeding Bob Jauron, who resigned last April. Iofredo will also continue as head basketball mentor.

The announcement was made July 14th by Fr. Richard P. Baird, C.P.P.S., athletic director.

Iofredo came to St. Joseph's in 1957 as assistant coach in both football and basketball. He took over the basketball reins last year and led the Pumas to a 12-11 record and fourth place in the Indiana Collegiate conference with a 6-6 mark.

Native of Cleveland

A native of Cleveland and a 1946 graduate of Western Reserve University, the 35-year old Iofredo compiled an eight-year high school head coaching record of 11-5 in football, 128-43 in basketball and 41-12 in baseball. He came to St. Joseph's from Hamilton Catholic high school in Hamilton, Ohio.

Iofredo began his career in 1946 as assistant football, wrestling and baseball coach at Shaker Heights high school in Cleveland. The next year he moved to Benedictine high school, also in Cleveland, where he was assistant football and basketball coach for two years.

From 1949-52, Iofredo was head basketball and baseball coach and assistant football coach at Wheeling Central high school in Wheeling, W. Va. His basketball teams compiled a three-year record of 61-8 and captured the conference and state championships all three years. His baseball teams had a 41-12 mark and he helped the football squad to a 12-9 three-year record.

Coached in Dayton

His next post was at Chaminade high school in Dayton, Ohio, in 1952-53. He took over the basketball reins there and compiled a 12-8 record and assisted with the football squad, which finished with a 9-1 mark.

For the next four years he was head basketball coach at Hamilton Catholic high school, where his teams won 55 and lost 27. He was also head football coach during his last two years there, in 1955 and 1956, and won 11 and lost five.

Extension to Add Frosh Program

Fr. Henry J. Martin, C.P.P.S., newly appointed director of the Calumet Center of St. Joseph's college, has announced completion of plans to offer a full daytime program for college freshmen. The program will be open to graduates of approved high schools. These daytime classes are being added to the regular evening extension division conducted for the past eight years.

The establishment of this new division is the first step in the center's expansion program. Plans are already being formulated to add a daytime sophomore program in September, 1960.

ELECTION NOTICE J.O.E. CHAPTER

On Monday night, Oct. 5, the Jasper - Owensboro - Evansville Chapter of the St. Joseph's alumni association will hold its annual elections at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Evansville. The election will be preceded by a stag barbeque at 7:00 p.m. All St. Joseph's alumni living in or near the Jasper - Owensboro - Evansville area are urged to attend this meeting.

Parents' Club Honors Fr. Otte

A highlight of the Aug. 23rd business meeting of the officers of the St. Joseph Fathers' and Mothers' Club, held on the St. Joseph campus, was the presentation of a gift to Fr. Joseph Otte, C.P.P.S., associate professor of accounting at St. Joseph's and moderator of the Parents' Clubs. Mr. Tom Butler, newly elected president of the Fathers' Club, made the presentation on behalf of the two clubs.

(Fr. Otte was injured seriously in an automobile accident May 30 while traveling to St. Charles Seminary at Carthage, Ohio. He was just 100 feet from the entrance to the seminary when his car was struck in the rear by an oncoming vehicle. He suffered three fractures in his skull, a fractured collar bone, six cracked ribs and lacerations on his face, hands and left knee. Fr. Otte is recuperating at St. Mary's Convent in Phoenix, Ariz. He will perform quasi-chaplain duties for the Precious Blood sisters stationed at the convent. His address is 402 East Monroe, Phoenix, Ariz.)

Father Otte introduced Fr. Paul R. White, C.P.P.S., assistant professor of economics at St. Joseph's, who will take over as moderator of the Parents' Clubs.

Fr. Kern Named To Extension Post

Fr. Cletus G. Kern, C.P.P.S., has been appointed assistant director of St. Joseph's Calumet Center. His appointment was effective Aug. 1.

Father Kern, who attended St. Joseph's as a student from 1926 to 1931, had been assigned to the college since 1940. He was chairman of the Division of Religion and Philosophy and taught religion and philosophy before his reappointment.

Father Kern was ordained in 1937, received his master's degree in philosophy at Catholic University in 1938 and taught philosophy at St. Charles Seminary from 1938 to 1940.

In 1942-43 he was co-director of the college news bureau with Fr. Henry Martin, who was recently appointed director of the Calumet Center. From 1943 to 1950 Father Kern was registrar of the college and since 1950 registrar of Xavier hall.

(Tentative Homecoming schedule appears on page three).

St. Joseph's homecoming will be held on the college campus Saturday, Oct. 24, when Valparaiso, a traditional homecoming foe, will furnish the opposition for the Puma football team.

Extensive plans are being made to insure that HOMECOMING '59 will be as successful as 1958's when new alumni-oriented homecoming arrangements resulted in the best homecoming in the history of the school.

Homecoming changes designed to give St. Joseph's alumni the feeling that this was their weekend on the campus were inaugurated and almost 700 people participated in the 1958 homecoming activities.

As last year, the Senior Class, themselves to become alumni in June, will act as hosts for the returning alumni and reunions of the classes of '34, '49, and '54.

A tentative schedule for the homecoming weekend is published on page three. With many details still to be worked out, the completed and "official" schedule will be published in the October issue of CONTACT.

Aug. 1 marked the opening of the FIFTH ANNUAL ALUMNI FUND DRIVE of St. Joseph's College. The 1959-60 drive is scheduled to close on July 31, 1960.

This annual alumni fund drive was inaugurated in 1955 to provide the alumni of St. Joseph's College with an opportunity to express their attachment to the college in a manner that would provide St. Joseph's with vitally needed facilities. The last four years more than $52,237.00 has been contributed to the fund by the alumni of St. Joseph's College.

Although the support of the alumni has been encouraging, the need is still great, especially if the college is to continue operating at its present high level of scholastic achievement.

The deficit between student tuition and fees and operating expenses is large and the contributions from the alumni made during this annual drive help to a degree to wipe out this deficit.

It is hoped that this year more than 1000 alumni will contribute. If this proves the case it is fully expected that the drive will top the $15,000 mark.

An unofficial breakdown of the Fourth Annual Alumni Fund Drive (1958-59) shows that 699 individuals contributed $12,780.75.

Up until this time about 18 per cent of the college's alumni have contributed. REMEMBER... ANY AMOUNT WILL BE GRATEFULLY APPRECIATED.

Eight members of the St. Joseph's teaching staff will occupy new faculty positions with the beginning of this semester.

Fr. Edward A. Marziarz, academic dean, announced that Fr. J. Siegrist has been promoted from an associate professor to a full professor of biology. Father Siegrist has recently received his Ph.D. from the Institut Divi Thomae.

Four other members of the staff have been promoted from assistant professor to associate professor. They are: Fr. Joseph A. Smolar, Fr. Clement J. Kuhns, Fr. Raymond M. Cera and Fr. Alvin W. Druhman.

Also on the promotion list are Fr. William L. Eilerman, Fr. Ambrose A. Ruschau and Fr. Paul R. White, who have been promoted from instructor to assistant professor.

At least 10 St. Joseph seniors have been granted assistantships for study at graduate school and two have been granted fellowships for next year, according to Fr. Edward A. Marziarz, academic dean.

Peter Warner, a chemistry major, has received a fellowship which will allow him to study chemistry at the University of Detroit and John Burke has received an Edwards fellowship at Indiana law school.

Receiving the assistantships are: Larry Herber, geology, New Mexico School of Mines; James Niemeyer, geology, Purdue University; Chuck Holmes, geology, Florida State; Cletus Habing, geology, Purdue University; Leo Kominck, biology, University of Illinois; Ray Tennant, biology, University of Notre Dame; Richard P. Sutter, biology, Ohio State University; Al Muelier, chemistry, Michigan State University; LeRoy Ellgass, accounting, University of Michigan; James Egan, economics, Purdue University; and Robert J. Newett, University of Illinois.

Other students attending grad school without assistantships or fellowships are: Dave Bauer, economics, Fordham; Howard Dewes, economics, Marquette University; Bob Hoffswell, mathematics, University of Illinois; and in geology—Paul Jurik, Bob Gontko, and Ed Grayczyk, Texas A. & M.; James Hays and Art Lapadat, University of Kansas; Michael Tierney, University of Arizona; and John VanDerLey, Iowa State University.

In the field of education, 33 students will go from their practice teaching into professional teaching positions. Also, three students will enter med school next fall. They are Gerald E. Byrne, John Neff and Wayne Kassel, all going to St. Louis University.

DR. CECIL E. JOHNSON, college physician for 40 years, was buried Aug. 5 in Rensselaer. The doctor and his wife, Gladys, were involved in an accident when their car went off the road on a curve on Highway 53 between Mountmorenc and Wolcott. Mrs. Johnson survived the wreck but the Doctor never regained consciousness. This fall the College was to have feted Dr. Johnson for his 40 years of service to the College.

lege. He will be an instructor in psychology.

Father Maziarz also announced that Fr. Lawrence F. Heiman, M.A., L.C.G., M.C.G., will rejoin the college staff as associate professor of music. Father Heiman has been on leave of absence in Rome, Italy for the past two years while doing advanced studies.

Leaving the St. Joseph's teaching staff are Walter L. Blackledge, M.A., J.D., Ph.D., Sr. M. Petronella Schroeder, M.S., Ph.D., Sr. M. Theona Smith, M.A., Rev. James I. Birkley, M.A., Rev. Joseph F. Scheuer, M.A., Ph.D., and Mr. Robert Jauron.

New Opponents Scheduled In Football, Basketball

Both the football and basketball squads at St. Joseph's College will meet several new opponents this coming season, according to final schedules released by head football and basketball coach Joe Iofredo.

The football squad will open its nine-game campaign against Northeast Missouri State College at Kirksville, Mo., Friday night, Sept. 18, and will close the season at home against Western Kentucky. It will be the first time St. Joseph's has ever met either of these schools.

Northeast Missouri replaces Xavier, who had beaten the Pumas in the opener the past three seasons, and Western Kentucky replaces Eastern Michigan in the finale.

To Play Loras

Sandwiched among the six traditional Indiana Collegiate Conference foes is Loras College of Dubuque, Ia., whom the Pumas will meet at home Oct. 10. The two teams met nine times between 1941 and 1952, and St. Joseph's holds a 5-4 edge.

The Pumas will play five games at home and four away. Last year they compiled a 5-4 record and finished in a tie for second in the ICC with a 4-2 mark.

The basketball squad will play a 21-game schedule which includes four new regular-season opponents. Anderson College, whom the Pumas beat in the NAIA play-off tourney last March, will play at St. Joseph's Dec. 17, and the Pumas will meet Villa Madonna for the first time at Covington, Ky., Jan. 28. In addition, St. Joseph's will participate in a new holiday tournament Jan. 1 and 2 at Indiana Central in Indianapolis. The other two teams in the tourney will be Franklin College and Georgetown (Ky.).

Open at Marshall

The cagers' longest trip will be the opener when they travel to Huntington, W. Va. for the second straight year to tangle with Marshall. The rest of the schedule will include, as last year, the 12 ICC battles and two games apiece with Wabash and Bellarmine.

In his first season at the helm last year, Iofredo compiled a 12-11 record and finished fourth in the ICC with a 6-6 mark.

Attends Conference

Richard F. Scharf, Director of Placement, St. Joseph's College, participated in the 10th annual conference of the Midwest College Placement Association held at the Neil House Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 14-16. More than 500 members attended the 1959 conference. The association's membership consists of Midwest college placement officials and industrial administrators.

Gridders Face Shortage Of Manpower, Experience

New football coach Joe Iofredo and his two new assistants, Ed Dwyer and Jim Holstein, face the most severe shortage of manpower and experience that a St. Joseph football squad has seen in at least five years. The shortage is a result of the loss of 14 lettermen and the absence of a 1958 freshman squad, which has deprived this year's team of tested sophomore reserve strength.

The 1959 squad will number 28 men, including 12 lettermen, when the Pumas meet Northeast Missouri State College (5-4 last season) Sept. 18 at Kirksville, Mo. This will be the first time that St. Joseph's has ever met the Bulldogs, who replace Xavier (O.) on the Puma schedule.

St. Joseph's will also close the season against a brand new opponent—Western Kentucky (4-5 last year)—Nov. 14. The third non-conference foe—Loras College (3-5)—has returned to the Puma schedule after a seven-year lapse. These three games are in addition to the six traditional Indiana Collegiate conference battles.

Last season, under Coach Bob Jauron, St. Joseph's finished with a 5-4 season record and 4-2 in the ICC, good for a second-place tie with Ball State. Gone from that squad are such veterans as three-time All-Conference tackle Ken Bates, end Ed Labbe, guard Dick Cote, center Tom Huhn, quarterback Mike McGovern and halfback Tom Deem, all starters. Replacements for these men are slim.

The outlook for 1959, however, is by no means all black. Iofredo will be able to start lettermen, including six returning starters, at eight of the 11 positions; the three posts where no lettermen are returning are quarterback, center and one guard spot. Iofredo's major worry is injuries; because of an almost complete absence of experienced reserve strength, his nucleus of first-string lettermen must stay healthy if the Pumas hope to match last year's 5-4 record.

At quarterback it will be either sophomore Dave Beam or junior Ralph Gardner, third-string signal-caller last year. Starters Mike Murphy and Les Klein have returned to the fullback and right halfback positions respectively, and 1957 regular Dick Romo, who dropped out of school last year, is back at the left halfback spot. Halfbacks George Connelly and Larry Wilmore are the only other lettermen in the backfield.

The biggest concern is the line, particularly in the middle where only one letterman guard and no veteran centers have returned. Hank Murphy, 1958 reserve, will probably open at center, but the guard post opposite letterman Vince Goeddeke is up for grabs among three sophomores.

Three lettermen—Roger Mueller, Vic Roos and Mike Bartels—have returned at tackle. Mueller and Roos were slated as the probable starters, but Mueller suffered a hairline fracture of the arm in the second week of practice and will be sidelined for at least five weeks.

Three lettermen have also returned at end—Ray Regner, Jim Madden and Dave Beran.

Dwyer, Holstein Named Assistants

St. Joseph's College has named Edward F. Dwyer of Indianapolis and James H. Holstein of Hamilton, Ohio to its coaching staff. The announcement was made by Fr. Richard P. Baird, C.P.P.S., athletic director, on Aug. 4.

Dwyer and Holstein will join Joe Iofredo, head football and basketball coach, and Bob Shemsky, head baseball coach and intramural director, on the college athletic staff.

Both men will assist Iofredo in football and Holstein, former professional basketball player, will also be assistant basketball coach. In addition, Dwyer will coach the golf and tennis teams and will be in charge of physical training, while Holstein has also been named track coach.

A 1951 graduate of Howe high school in Indianapolis, Dwyer received his B.S. and M.A. degrees in physical education from Purdue University. He played football for the Boilermakers in 1951-52 and in 1956-57, and was an assistant football coach at Purdue last year. Dwyer played end and tackle for Purdue and played tackle in 1954 for Ft. Sill, Okla. Ft. Sill was National Service champion that year.

For the past three years Holstein, former professional basketball player for Minneapolis and Fort Wayne, has been head basketball and baseball coach at Sycamore high school in Cincinnati, where he compiled a 33-23 record in basketball and a 40-28 mark in baseball. He was also an assistant coach in football and track. Holstein is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati.

ACADEMICS

by FATHER EDWARD A. MAZIARZ
ACADEMIC DEAN

Books In Theology

With this issue of Contact ACADEMICS celebrates its first year in the world of print. In line with its purpose of keeping alive the academic bond that the College has with its alumni, this column wants to get a stronger hold on life in the coming year. One way it can continue to grow is by being of educational service to its readers; accordingly, if you have suggestions, send them to the Academic Dean.

In this first birthday column you will find a list of books in Dogmatic Theology, Scripture and Liturgy and Moral Theology. They are recommended as helps to increase knowledge of your faith, as aids in answering problems you might find in daily life, and for your reading enjoyment.

In the field of Dogmatic Theology, many of you will profit from reading Sacred Doctrine: An Introduction to Theology (Westminster, Md.: The Newman Press, 1958; $4.50), by Father Edwin G. Kaiser, C.P.P.S., of our faculty. Here is a book that will tell you what theology is, what are its sources, and how theology develops faith and other knowledge. The noted layman, Frank J. Sheed, has a book Theology for Beginners (New York: Sheed & Ward, 1957; $3.00) which gives a fresh view of various parts of theology that would deepen your knowledge of religion. A similar book is The Splendor of the Church (New York: Sheed & Ward, 1956; $3.00) by Henri De Lubac. There are two catechisms published recently that are worthwhile. The first is called A Catholic Catechism (New York: Herder & Herder; edited in three different bindings). It is a new concept in catechisms, and can be used with profit by the adult and by the whole family. Another catechism suitable for adults is called Life in Christ by Kilgallen & Weber (obtainable at 720 N. Rush Street, Chicago). If you want to know more about the faiths of those who are not catholic, Father John A. Hardon, S.J., has a fine paperback, The Protestant Churches of America, (Westminster, Md.: The Newman Press, 1956; $1.75) which gives the origins and tenets of most of the Christian religious bodies in the United States. The result of a conference held on the Precious Blood held at Saint Joseph's College has been published under the title Precious Blood Study Week, (Carthagen, Ohio: 1959; $3.00). This book explains the theology and the devotion to the Precious Blood; all the addresses were given by priests of the Society of the Most Precious Blood.

In the realm of Sacred Scripture, Fr. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S., a former President of Saint Joseph's, has an excellent work, Life of Christ (New York: Dryden Press, 1952; $3.75), which will deepen your knowledge of Christ and of His mission to the world. Jesus in His Times is a two-volume paperback Life of Christ by Daniel-Rops (New York: Dutton; $2.50). The Two Edged Sword by Father J. L. McKenzie, S.J. (Milwaukee: Bruce, 1956; $3.50) is a highly praised book which deals with the interpretation of the Bible and summarizes recent research on the Bible. Also worthwhile is the two-volume set, Guide to the Bible by Robert and Tricot (Westminster, Md.: The Newman Press, 1951-55; $6.00); another Guide to the Bible is the one compiled by the Monks of Maredsous (New York: W. Heiman, 1953; $1.25). For children in the lower teens, there is a fine two-volume set by Daniel-Rops (New York: Kennedy; 1956). The first volume is called The Book of Books ($3.75), the second is called The Book of Life ($3.75).

In the field of Liturgy there is a whole group of books that will lead you to a closer union with the church in her worship of God. A small pamphlet, "Sacred Music and the Sacred Liturgy", (National Catholic Welfare Conference; Washington, D.C.; $0.25), is an English translation of the latest decree of Pius XII, and shown the new direction that participation in the liturgy is to take. There are a number of works that will help you partake better in the Mass and Sacrament Liturgy. The Liturgy Press (Collegeville, Minnesota) has published Public Worship by Father Joseph A. Jungman, S.J., ($3.50) and In Remembrance of Me ($3.50) by A. G. Martimort. Another noteworthy book explaining your place and function in the Church's liturgy is Liturgical Piety (Notre Dame Press: 1955; $4.75) by Father Louis Bouyer, and The Inner Life of Worship by C. Magsam (St. Meinrad, Indiana, Grail; $1.50). Finally, there are two sets of books that give you an account of the Divine Worship from day to day and throughout the various seasons of the year. The first is a two-volume set called The Mass Through the Year (Westminster, Md.: The Newman Press, 1958-59; Part I, $4.50, Part II, $4.75) by Aemiliana Lochr. The second is a paperback, 5-volume set that has won much praise; it is written by Father Pius Pursch, S.J., and is called The Church's Year of Grace (Collegeville, Minn.: The Liturgical Press, 1953-59; $2.75 per volume).

In the field of moral theology, dealing with the life of a Catholic from day to day as well as with contemporary problems, a best seller is the small, two by four inch volume called My Daily Bread and its companion My Daily Prayer which are handy enough to carry around. My Daily Bread will increase your self-knowledge and give you a lift at the beginning, middle or close of your busy day. Both are available in paper covers (Brooklyn, N. Y., The Confraternity of the Precious Blood, 1955, 82c each). From the same publisher, there is a simplified summary of St. Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologica ($1.35) written by Father Walter Farrell and Father Martin J. Healy, and a whole series of small volumes: My Daily Psalm Book; My Daily New Testament. A book that explains the Sunday gospels well is My Sunday Reading by K. O'Sullivan (Milwaukee: Bruce, 1957; $3.50). The entire field of moral theology and solutions to current problems is contained in Jone-Adelman, Moral Theology (Westminster, Md.: 1945; $4.50). Three books on the Catholic point of view in raising your children are: We and Our Children (New York: Kennedy, 1955; $3.50) and The Year and Our Children from the same publisher (at $3.95); Parents, Children and the Facts of Life by Father H. Sattler, is a fine paperback on the instruction of children (New York: Doubleday, $0.65). There are numbers of books dealing with specialized moral topics. Father Harold C. Gardiner, S.J., gives a fine summary of a current problem in Catholic View of Censorship (New York: Hanover House, 1958; $2.95). A Catholic layman has written There is a Place for God in Business (New York: Pageant, 1957; $3.00). A popular and effective treatment of current problems in medicine is given in the paperback, Medico-Moral Problems by Father Gerald Kelly, S.J., (St. Louis: Catholic Hospital Association, 1958; $1.50).

Any of the above books can be purchased directly from the publisher or your local Catholic or other bookstore. If you are in an area where no bookstores are available you can write to:

Buildings Improved During Summer

The remodeling of Drexel hall, the enlargement of the college book store and additions to the dining room and chapel are some of the major construction and renovation projects started or completed on campus during the summer months.

With the College Fathers' and Mothers' Clubs providing a major portion of the money, Drexel hall was completely remodeled. As part of this remodeling, the chapel, formerly located on the second floor, was moved to the fourth floor, thus making room for 13 more students.

A shower room formerly located in the basement of Gasper Hall was moved to the second floor and this additional room in the basement allowed the college book store to expand its facilities.

A large number of elm trees affected by elm disease were removed from behind the administration building, drainage work was completed and new eight-foot sidewalks were installed from Gaspar hall to the dining room and from the Administration building to the post office.

In addition to these projects the large classroom in Science hall basement was divided into two classrooms. The former sisters' quarters were converted into student housing to provide room for 52 more students. And construction was begun on a new dining room and chapel (two floors) in the niche formed by the west rear wall of the chapel and present kitchen area. The new chapel will be used for small retreats and to give additional altar space.

During the past year, St. Joseph's has also done much to improve the facilities of its athletic training program. Most significant was the relocation of the training room in the old football-basketball equipment room at the south side of the field house. The former training room was remodeled into a classroom for the school's athletic teams as well as an athletic film library.

Chicago Holds Dance

The annual Spring Dance of the Chicago Chapter of the St. Joseph Alumni Association was held at the Sherry hotel in Chicago on Saturday night, June 20.

Over 250 alumni and friends attended. Bob Roberts and his orchestra provided the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Volz, Jr., St. Joseph's Alumni Director, attended along with Fr. Paul R. White, C.P.P.S., chaplain of the Chicago Chapter, and Fr. Donald F. Shea, C.P.P.S., of St. Joseph's.

A dance committee composed of Jim Mangan, '49, Jerry Kolb, '49, George Byerwalter, '50, Bob Horky, '50, Joe McGrath, '51, Frank Gilligan, '51, Joe Gill, '52, Danny Sullivan, '52, Bob Carney, '53, Al Fellingner, '53, Jim Righeimer, '54, Hugh McAvoy, '54, Larry Stricklin, '55, Gus Pasquini, '55, Keith Snyder, '54, Tim O'Brien, '56, Glenn Murphy, '57, Ken Gallagher, '57, Dan Waber, '58, George Lux, '58 and Ray Kuzniar, '59, handled arrangements for the dance.

ENROLLMENT

College officials are expecting a record enrollment for the seventh consecutive year when freshmen registered Sept. 12 and returning students Sept. 17.

Four-hundred new students are expected and a total record enrollment of 1950. If this enrollment materializes it will exceed 1958's by some 50 students.

St. Joseph's College will begin its 68th year with the traditional Solemn High Mass in the fieldhouse at 8:00 p.m., Sept. 17.

Bookstore Wins National Award

The St. Joseph College bookstore has won first prize in a national contest for its Book-a-Month club promotion. The contest, sponsored by the National Association of College Stores, was based on the kind of project used to encourage greater reading of technical and reference books and wider outside reading.

The award was presented to Fr. Edward M. Roof, head of the St. Joseph bookstore, at a NACS convention in New York City recently. There were 332 colleges represented and 10 awards were given. The Iowa Supply Co. of the University of Iowa placed second.

Federal Bill Would Affect Alumni

H.R. 2440, to amend the Internal Revenue Code, was presented to the House of Representatives in January by Representative Frank Thompson of New Jersey. An identical bill, S. 2241, is sponsored in the Senate by Senator Murray of Montana. These bills propose to equalize the cost of giving to higher education for all taxpayers, so that the out-of-pocket cost per "gift dollar" would be the same for all as the present cost, nine cents, for the highest bracket taxpayer.

There have been no hearings as yet, but the House Ways & Means Committee plans to hold hearings on tax legislation, including H.R. 2440, after adjournment of the present session of Congress.

In view of the critical importance of obtaining more private uncommitted funds for general operations for colleges and universities we urge you to read the explanation of H.R. 2440 given below and to contact your congressional delegation expressing your view as to the need of increased private support and indicate whether in your opinion the proposed amendment would provide a desirable and effective way of increasing such support.

A Brief Explanation of H.R. 2440

The purpose of H.R. 2440 is to permit the man of modest income to make a voluntary contribution to an institution of higher education at the same out-of-the-pocket cost felt by a wealthy donor. This is not possible now; if a man in the top income bracket wants to give $100 to his alma mater, only $9 of the gift comes out of his own pocket, for he saves $91 on his federal income tax payment; but if a man in the 20 per cent bracket gives $100, $80 comes out of his pocket, for only $20 is saved on his tax payment.

Under the provisions of H.R. 2440, both men would compute their tax liability in the present fashion, except that they would not include gifts to institutions of higher education in computing deductions from adjusted gross income. After the tax is computed, both the wealthy donor and the one of modest means would be entitled to subtract from his tax payment 91 per cent of the amount he had contributed to institutions of higher education (within an upper limit of 15 percent of adjusted gross income).

The proposal presents the taxpayer with a $10,000 taxable income this kind of choice. "If I make no contributions to my college, I owe the tax collector $2,200. If I give my college $100, I will owe the tax collector $2,109. I will be out an additional $9, but my college will be ahead $100."

The same choice, differing only in the amount of taxes due, is offered taxpayers in every income bracket.

So much for the individual who itemizes his deductions. Special and simple provisions for the taxpayer who takes the standard deduction are intended to accomplish the same purpose. Similarly, special provisions for corporations will equalize the out-of-the-pocket cost of educational gifts from large and small corporations.

The provisions of H.R. 2440 apply only to gifts to institutions of higher education. They do not apply to gifts made to community chests and other charities.

A detailed study carried out by Surveys and Research Corporations of tax returns and voluntary giving over the past several decades clearly indicates that increased giving has not been stimulated by increasing the allowable deductions in computing taxable income. A new approach is necessary if a greater flow of voluntary gifts is to be stimulated.

Educational costs are certain to rise greatly in the years ahead. Tuition charges cannot be increased to the point of meeting the entire bill. The rest of the cost must come from tax sources or from private gifts. It seems highly desirable to support means to increase the flow of private gifts.
